JENKINS SCHOLARSHIPS 2014-15

Applications are invited for up to six Jenkins Scholarships for the 2014-2015 academic year, including four to study at Oxford.

The Jenkins Scheme is linked to the Europaeum association of leading European universities. Applications may be submitted from all Europaeum partner universities.

These are: the Universities of Oxford, Leiden, Bologna, Paris I (Pantheon-Sorbonne), Geneva (the Graduate Institute of International & Development Studies), Prague (Charles University), Helsinki, Krakow (the Jagiellonian University) and Barcelona (Universitat Pompeu Fabra), and plus Universidad Complutense de Madrid and the IEP-Catholica University Lisbon

The Jenkins Scholarship Scheme which has just celebrated its 10th anniversary honours the lifelong achievements of the former President of the European Commission (1976-1981) and Chancellor of the University of Oxford (1987-2003).

Awards are for now worth up to £12,000 per annum, usually for one year.

Jenkins Scholars will be eligible to study at Oxford for a Masters degree in the Humanities or Social Sciences, the disciplines closest to Lord Jenkins' own political and literary interests.

The Roy Jenkins Memorial Fund was set up in 2003-4, to create scholarships to bring students from the countries of the European Union to study at the University of Oxford, and to support Oxford students going onto further study in Europe. More than 50 Jenkins Scholars have been elected to date.

Please note applications for Oxford must be received by 20th January 2014. Further details of the scheme are available on:
