

The Twentieth Century – Dvacáté století
Number 2010/1

Content

Editorial

- Over the third issue of the journal The Twentieth Century – Dvacáté století 9
Martin Kovář

Studies

- Yugoslavia and the First Stage of the Normalization Process in Czechoslovakia 13
Ondřej Vojtěchovský

Paneuropa or Anschluss?

- The Foreign-Political Background of German-Austrian Customs Union 1931 39
Miroslav Šepták

Ninety Years of the Trianon Peace Treaty

- The Decisive Moments from the Dealing of Hungarian Government 57
and Hungarian Peace Delegation in the Question of the Peace Treaty with the Entente Powers
(December 1919 – June 1920)
Andrej Tóth

- The CMEAS Help to the Developing Countries: The Case GDR and Socialist Ethiopia 79
Pavel Szobi

“The Country Looming above All”?

- Great Britain as Seen by Czechoslovak Architects between Two World Wars 91
Libor Tomáš

- American Help to China before the Outbreak of the War in Pacific 115
Aleš Skřivan

- The Reaction of the Netherlands to the Expansion of the Firm Bata to Its Local and Colonial 125
Markets between the Two World Wars in the Context of International Economic Relations
Sylva Sklenářová

Specifický výzkum

- “This Small, Far-away Country in Central Europe...” I 141
The British Press and the “Czechoslovak Events during the Munich Crisis”
Dušan Radovanovič

“This Small, Far-away Country in Central Europe...” II The British Press and the “Czechoslovak Events” in the Years 1945–1948 Petr Beránek	161
The British Press and (versus) Politics The Reflection of Selected Internal and International Events in the British Press in the Years 1918–1921 Aleš Bříza	185
Reviews	209
News	243